MEMBERS OF FAMILIES OF 59-60 HERE FOR HOMECOMING

Aug. 29, 1935, 24th

In the big parade staged on the first day of our county fair and home coming last week, was a touring car in which rode the remaining pioneers who spent the winter of 1859-60 in Heber—the first winter white people remained in the valley, 75 years ago.

Those in the car were Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Rasband, Aunt Christie Giles, Kellan Carroll Esplin and John W. Crook.

Charleston Ward

CHARLESTON WARD, Wasatch Stake, Wasatch Co., Utah, consists of the Latter-day Saints residing in the village of Charleston, and those living in a scattered condition in its immediate neighborhood. The village of Charleston is situated on a level tract of Provo Valley near the left bank of the Provo River, 5 miles southwest of Heber City, and 3 miles south of Midway, on the opposite side of the river.

In 1858 a trapper by the name of Aaron Daniels located on the Provo River at the point where the channel of Daniels Creek empties into that river, about one mile north of the center of Charleston. He spent most of the winter of 1858-1859 trapping in Provo Valley, but went away in 1859. That year, however, George Noakes and others from Utah Valley took up land claims near the present site of Charleston and put in some small grain which, however, was killed by the frosts. William Manning built the first house in that part of Provo Valley now included in the Charleston Ward and wintered stock on his ranch during the winter of 1859-1860. Noakes and Manning were the only settlers in Charleston until 1863 when other settlers moved in. There were

Heber City Couple Married 58 Years

HEBER CITY, Nov. 23. — Mr. and Mrs. William G. Rasband will celebrate their fifty-eighth wedding anniversary at their home in Heber City tomorrow.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Rasband were members of the 19 families who spent the first winter in the old fort at Heber City in the winter of 1859. Mr. Rasband came to the valley in April, 1859, when he was seven years of age. Mrs. Rasband, then Maria Ann Carlile, was three years of age. The couple has lived in the valley since. His settlement, and has taken an active part in the pioneering and upbuilding of the county, in the building of bridges, roads and canals, and the building of the Wasatch stake tabernacle.

Only four of the families which spent the first winter in the valley survive.

Mr. and Mrs. Rasband have seven children, 33 grandchildren and four great-grandchildren. The children are: Mrs. Henry Baird, Thomas, Ernest and Don, Rasband, and Mrs. Casey Watkins, all of Heber City; Frank, Rasband, Rexburg, Idaho; Mrs. May Wickham and Mrs. Adam Rennie, of Idaho Falls. All the members of the family will be present for the occasion, the first time all the members of the family have been together for 77 years.

The couple was married in the Salt Lake Endowment house on Nov. 29, 1877, by Daniel H. Wells. Mr. Rasband has been engaged in farming and stock raising and is still active and able to attend to his work.

About a dozen families there in 1866. After that, the settlement grew quite rapidly. George Noakes was the first presiding Elder at Charleston, acting under the direction of Bishop Joseph S. Murdock of Heber City. He was succeeded about 1867 by John Watkins, who presided until July 15, 1877, when the Charleston Branch was organized as the Charleston Ward with Nymphus G. Murdock as Bishop. He was succeeded in 1901 by William Dabett, who was succeeded in 1904 by John M. Ritchie, who presided Dec. 31, 1930. On that date the Charleston Branch had 387 members, including 88 children. The total population of the Charleston Precinct in 1930 was 487, of these 343 resided in the town of Charleston.

Duchesne Ward 9th

DUCHESNE WARD, Duchesne Stake, Duchesne Co., Utah, consists of Latter-day Saints residing in and near the city of Duchesne, the county seat of Duchesne County, situated at the junction of Strawberry Creek with the Duchesne River, 25 miles southwest of Roosevelt, 50 miles southwest of Vernal, Utah Co. and 60 miles southeast of Heber City.

The first branch of the Church on the Uintah Indian Reservation was called the Duchesne Branch of the Wasatch Stake. It was organized Nov. 30, 1905, by Pres. Joseph R. Murdock of Wasatch Stake, with Elias D. Smith as presiding Elder. He was succeeded by Joseph W. Musser, June 8, 1906, and the Duchesne Branch was made part of the Uintah Stake. On Sept. 3, 1906, the Duchesne Branch was organized as a ward with Ephraim Lambert as Bishop. In 1906 the Saints at Theodore were organized as a branch of the Duchesne Ward with Joseph A. Fortie as presiding Elder, and on Aug. 27, 1907, the Duchesne Ward, which hitherto had contained all the Saints in Duchesne County, or in that part of the country which had recently constituted the Uintah Indian Reservation, was divided, and a part of the same (the Theodore Branch) was organized as the Theodore Ward with Alma N. Murdock as Bishop, while the east part was temporarily continued as the Duchesne Ward, with Ephraim Lambert as Bishop. Soon afterwards the Duchesne Ward was named Roosevelt and the Theodore Ward named Duchesne Ward. In 1910 Bishop Murdock was succeeded as Bishop of the Duchesne Ward by George V. Billings, who in 1920 was succeeded by Francis M. Shelton, who in 1922 was succeeded by James M. Mickelsen, who acted as Bishop of the Duchesne Ward Dec. 31, 1930. On that date the Church membership of the ward was 486, including 141 children. The total population of the Duchesne Precinct was 860 in 1930; of these 690 resided in the town of Duchesne.

Fred and Ray sawing wood.

Mrs. Pharis Murdock was operated on <sup>Friday</sup> morning. Cecil phoned 11. A.M. that Gladys had another attack of appendicitis wanted us to come down so Ed, Ma, & I went down 3. P.M. but when we got there she was much better. There was the worst blizzard I have seen for a long time we couldn't see 50 yards ahead, we tried to pass a tractor got off the road but the State tractor pulled us back on. so we went on rejoicing got there 5. P.M.

mon 20 Came home brought Aunt Jane, but coming this side of Park City, a little the other side of where Gladys Davis was killed, we tried to pass a gas truck, but hard day soon and the car got the best of Ed, so we had a kind of a sudden stop, right in a snow bank that the road men had shoved out at the <sup>side of</sup> road, jamed the front end of the car in so tight the gas man had to pull us out. never hurt a thing on the car, but I got a shanty over my eye on the wind shield frame, but it has gone down now so I think that was a verry good stop don't you.
